

The Developing Areas Research Group

of the Royal Geographical Society-Institute of British Geographers

Undergraduate Research Workshop

Doing Development Dissertations

This workshop is aimed at undergraduate students considering doing their final year dissertation on a topic related to Development Geography. The workshop will cover a range of practical and intellectual issues, including development of a research question, research design, an introduction to research methods, working with translators and field assistants, practicalities of fieldwork in developing countries, and ethical concerns. We will also discuss doing a development-oriented dissertation while staying in the UK. Sources of finance and fund-raising will also be covered.

Friday 4th
December 2009

10.00 to 17.00

Birkbeck College, University of London

£10.00 (includes lunch and workshop booklet)

Travel bursaries are available for students who would otherwise find the travel costs difficult. See registration form for details.

Registration forms and more details can be found on the DARG website:
www.gg.rhul.ac.uk/DARG/events.htm

Applications will be on a first come first served basis.

For more information on the Developing Areas Research Group visit: <http://www.gg.rhul.ac.uk/DARG/>