

IGU 2004

Developing Areas Research Group (DARG): "Development NGOs and the state under 'good governance': critical voices or collaborators in neoliberalism?"

Session 1: Monday 16th, 1530 - 1650

Papers Chair: Janet Townsend

- 1530 – 1550 Fatima Alikhan and Peter Kyei: "New Paymasters, Old Problems? Development NGOs and the re-legitimated state in Ghana and India"
- 1550 – 1610 Philip Osei: "Collaboration and conflict in the enforcement of children's social development: exploring the relations between two NGOs and the Jamaican government"
- 1610 – 1630 Vandana Desai: "Transition within the urban NGO sector in Mumbai"
- 1630 – 1650 John Silk and Stephen Morse: "State-NGDO Partnerships in Europe and Nigeria: Perceptions and Impact"

Session 2: Monday 16th, 1700 – 1820

Panel Chair: Gina Porter

- 1700 – 1820 Fatima Alikhan, Peter Kyei, Saraswati Raju, Tina Wallace, Linda Peake, Sue Roberts, Tony Bebbington and Brian Pratt

Session 3: Tuesday 17th, 0730 – 0850

Papers Chair: Emma Mawdsley

- 0730 – 0750 Colin McFarlane: "Knowledge for development: from the World Bank to Slum / Shack Dwellers International"
- 0750 – 0810 Giles Mohan: "Participatory development, citizenship, and the state: NGOs, partnerships and the state in Ghana"
- 0810 – 0825 Linda Peake: "A woman's NGO in the context of neoliberalism: the case of the Red Thread Women's Development Programme in Guyana"
- 0825 – 0850 Oliver Froehling, John Paul Jones III, Susan M. Roberts and Margath Walker: "Transnational NGO Networks: A Framework for Analysis"